DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on February 6, 2004 has been entered.

Claim Objections

Claims 10, 30, 33 and 37 are objected to because of the following informalities:

In claim 10 lines 3-4, "the means for passage" lacks antecedent basis.

In claim 30 line 3, "the means " lacks antecedent basis.

In claim 33 line 3, "the means " lacks antecedent basis.

In claim 37 line 3, "the means " lacks antecedent basis.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 30, 33 and 37 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Regarding claims 30, 33 and 37, the word "means" is presented in an attempt to use a "means" clause to recite a claim element as a means for performing a specified function. However, since no function is specified by the word(s) preceding or succeeding "means," it is impossible to determine the equivalents of the element, as required by 35 U.S.C. 112, sixth paragraph. See Ex parte Klumb, 159 USPQ 694 (Bd. App. 1967).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 4, 10, 11, 13; 15, 30, 36 and 37 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Marshall (US 3,891,290).

Marshall discloses a fluid quick connector comprising: an electrically conductive connector housing (10); an endform (4) having a bore extending from one end; and an electrically conductive contact member (W) mounted in the housing and contacting the male endform to electrically connect the male endform and the quick connector housing, the contact member including: a first portion (40) mounted in the quick connector housing bore in contact with the quick connector housing; and an arm / means (46) extending from the first portion for passage through an open end of a bore in the endform in into contact with an inner surface of the male endform (col.3 lines 39-43).

Regarding claim 4, Marshall discloses the means being an arm having a bent end (shown in Fig.3) extending into the endform.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed February 6, 2004 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

In response to Applicant's arguments that applicants quick connectors "are inner-fitted, one in the other as compared to the coupler or Marshall", please note that the endform (4) of Marshall is inner-fitted in the housing 10.

In response to Applicant's arguments that "In Marshall, the end of the washer which does not carry the lobes extending in the bore in the opposite tube, does not extend into the open end of the opposite tube into contact with an inner surface of the opposite tube", it appear that Applicant is suggesting that the tube 2, is considered the housing. However, as stated in the rejection, the housing is defined at least in part by 10.

In response to Applicant's arguments that "Marshall's washer clearly is not mounted in a bore in a housing as it seats against the end of the flange of the ferrule mounted on the end of the tube rather than being disposed inside the tube", please see discussion in the previous paragraph. Additionally, Applicant's attention is referred to Figure 1 of Marshall, which shows the contact member (W) disposed inside the housing.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 5, 6, 8, 9, 12, 31, 32, 34, 35 and 38 are allowed.

Claim 7 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claim 33 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
